

Secretaría de Estudios Avanzados
Subsecretaría de Doctorado

CURRICULUM VITAE

Síntesis curricular para web

Prof. Adam Crawford

Graduate of the Universities of Warwick (Law and Sociology, First Class) and Cambridge (M.Phil Criminology) and PhD from the University of Leeds. Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice; Director of the Leeds Social Sciences Institute, University of Leeds. Research interests: public policing, private security, crime prevention, community safety, partnerships, youth justice, anti-social behaviour, victims of crime, restorative justice, urban governance and the regulation of public space. He has successfully secured over £10 million in external research funding, mostly as principal investigator. Member of the Scientific Committee of the Groupe Européen de Recherches sur les Normativités (GERN). Fellow of the Academy of Social Services and a lifetime honorary member of the British Society of Criminology. From 2010-15, Editor in Chief of the journal Criminology and Criminal Justice and an Editorial Board member of the British Journal of Criminology. Member of the International Advisory Boards for the Australian and New Zealand Journal of Criminology, Criminology and Criminal Justice and Restorative Justice. Books: Crawford, A. and Hucklesby, A., (eds) (2013) Legitimacy and Compliance in Criminal Justice, London: Routledge. Crawford, A., (ed.) (2011) International and Comparative Criminal Justice and Urban Governance: Convergence and Divergence in Global, National and Local Settings, Cambridge University Press. Crawford, A., (ed.) (2009) Crime Prevention Policies in Comparative Perspective, Cullompton: Willan Publishing.